

Development Search

Y T I R G E T N I O G E R F I
M P E G O D E S P A I R O R S
O I R I D E N T I T Y C T N O
N N Y E T B B G B G T I O O L
O F O R O S H A M E L L M I A
T E S R T P U W Q N I L I T T
U R S J A S E R C E U A R A I
A I L U T L U R T R G H O N O
K O L J P K F D A A Z P S G N
P R E C O N V E N T I O N A L
K I L A T E N C Y I I J E T A
Q T S U R T S I M V E O S S N
P Y E V I T A I T I N I N T A
L A T I N E G S K T V M I A L
Y C A M I T N I F Y O B Q P L

Development Search

1. Kohlberg – Level where everything is based on punishment and reward
2. Erikson – Stage where adolescent searches for role in life
3. Piaget – Stage where child is egocentric
4. Freud – Stage centered on toilet training
5. Kohlberg – Level where standards are our own but still the standards of our parents
6. Erikson – Stage when a person looks back at their life and feels a sense of accomplishment
7. Erikson – Stage when a child wants to do more and better things
8. Erikson – Stage when child learns that their caregiver is not dependable
9. Piaget – Stage when child learns object permanence
10. Freud – “Oedipus Complex”
11. Erikson – Stage that is most critical for creating a positive life throughout development
12. Erikson – Stage that involves being lonely
13. Erikson – Stage when a child is not allowed to have some control over environment
14. Erikson – Stage when child tries to become their own person
15. Freud – Stage centered around feeding and weaning
16. Erikson – Stage when a person looks back on their life and feels empty and has no sense of accomplishment
17. Erikson – Stage when a child is not allowed to do new and better things
18. Erikson – Stage when a person feels the need to contribute something to the world
19. Freud – Stage when nothing really happens
20. Erikson – Stage when a child feels the need to have some control in its environment
21. Erikson – Stage when a person searches for someone with whom they have a connection
22. Freud – Stage when all old issues arise
23. Erikson – Stage when a person does not feel they have contributed anything to society
24. Erikson – Stage when a child is not allowed to become their own individual