

Development Worksheet

Match the following theories or stages with the correct psychologist. The psychologist may be used more than once.

_____ 1. Ego

_____ 2. Sensorimotor

_____ 3. Unconscious

A. Freud

_____ 4. Industry

B. Piaget

_____ 5. Formal Operational

C. Kohlberg

_____ 6. Postconventional

D. Erikson

_____ 7. Latency

E. Adler

_____ 8. Autonomy

_____ 9. Birth Order

_____ 10. Object Permanence

Draw and label Freud's Theory of Iceberg Theory of Personality

Identify the following stages of Piaget. Some stages will be repeated

_____ 1. Michael's mother was very frustrated because Michael never seemed to get tired of asking why things were the way they were.

_____ 2. Champ loves to hit the music button on his toy because of all the neat colors and sounds it makes.

_____ 3. Whenever Molly's mom left the room Molly would cry until her mother came back into the room.

_____ 4. When given two different sized glasses with same amount of water in them, Carrie always took the taller glass.

_____ 5. Carrie wondered, if she did not get into Texas A&M would she ever succeed in life.

Identify the correct level and stage for each moral dilemma Stages may be repeated

1. I can not sneak out of my house because that would be against my parent's rules.

Level _____ Stage _____

2. Bob felt he had to run the red light in order to get his wife to the hospital before she gave birth.

Level _____ Stage _____

3. Paula did her homework everyday after school because she would get dessert if she did.

Level _____ Stage _____

4. Erik decided he needed to protest the war in Afghanistan by burning the American flag because he felt it was his right.

Level _____ Stage _____

5. Amanda refused to stay past curfew because she knew her mom would ground her for life.

Level _____ Stage _____

Complete the Erikson Crossword Puzzle

Across

1. feel good about entire life
2. no sense of accomplishment
3. feeling of constant failure
4. shared with someone special
5. what teenagers search for
6. failing to take control of environment
7. believing someone will care for you
8. separates from parents
9. believing no one cares for you
10. nothing important is contributed to the world

Down

3. feeling when without someone
11. feels need to contribute something positive
12. when no role is found
14. trying to control environment
15. not allowed to be an individual

Which stage is not used in the crossword? _____

Identify the parenting style for each scenario.

1. Melody, a two-year old, was in the store with her mom. Melody wanted some candy and her mother said no, it would spoil her dinner. Melody threw a big hissy-fit so loud everyone in the store stared at her and her mom. Her mom was so embarrassed that gave in to Melody's want.

2. Patrick decided he did not want to go to his last two classes of the day and skipped. His parents were called and confronted Patrick later that night. Patrick's parents told him that skipping was against the rules and he shouldn't do it again. Patrick realized that was the same thing his parents said the last time he skipped.

3. Bob and Mary have a teenage daughter. They found out that she had been sneaking out late at night once feel asleep. They decided to teach her a lesson. Bob nailed he window shut and put bells on her door so they would wake up every time she opened the door. And, they set the alarm so it would go off on motion.

4. Andrew's dad is a high power attorney, and he doesn't see him much. When his dad is home he sits in his favorite chair and works. He never talks to Andrew, goes to his soccer games, or asks who his friends are. Andrew can do anything and his dad would not notice.

5. Tony was curious about where his daughter was thinking about going to college. When he found out she wanted to go to Stanford he knew he couldn't afford it. He sat down with his daughter and together they figured out how they would get her there and pay for it.